

ABOUT DEKALB PRO BONO

DeKalb Pro Bono provides free legal help for low-income individuals in DeKalb County, Georgia.

DeKalb Pro Bono relies on a network of volunteer lawyers to provide legal support and representation to clients in areas such as bankruptcy, child custody and child support, divorce, domestic violence, landlord/tenant, and wills and estates.

If not for help from DeKalb Pro Bono and its network of volunteer lawyers, clients would face these life-changing legal matters alone. The work of DeKalb Pro Bono relies on the support of its community to help us empower our clients with the legal support and assistance they deserve to have their rights protected.
